

JANE F. KELLY, ESQ.
VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE GOVERNANCE & OPERATIONS
NEW JERSEY SCHOOLS DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Jane F. Kelly serves as the Vice President of Corporate Governance and Operations for the New Jersey Schools Development Authority (SDA). She joined the SDA in March 2008.

Prior to joining the SDA, Ms. Kelly served as VP, Associate General Counsel & Assistant Secretary for South Jersey Industries Inc., an energy services holding company. Among her responsibilities there was oversight of state and local government relations, communications and advising company management on legal and corporate compliance matters.

Ms. Kelly has nearly 20 years of experience working in the public sector. She served as an Assistant Commissioner in the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), as Assistant Counsel to former Governor Thomas H. Kean and as a legal assistant to former Governor and Chief Justice Richard J. Hughes. In addition, Ms. Kelly represented the state's investor owned public utilities in the legislative and regulatory arenas while serving as Executive Director of the New Jersey Utilities Association.

Ms. Kelly was named by NJBIZ Magazine as one of the "Best 50 Women in Business" in March 2007, and honored by the Princeton YWCA at its "Tribute to Women" held March 2008.

Ms. Kelly is a graduate of Rosemont College and has a Juris Doctorate from Seton Hall University School of Law.
