

RAYMOND A. ARCARIO
VICE PRESIDENT, CONSTRUCTION OPERATIONS
NEW JERSEY SCHOOLS DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Raymond A. Arcario serves as the Vice President of Construction for the New Jersey Schools Development Authority. Mr. Arcario joined the Authority in April 2014.

Mr. Arcario also serves as Executive Director of the New Jersey Building Authority having been appointed by Governor Christie in 2010. Prior to joining the Schools Development Authority, Mr. Arcario served as Deputy Executive Director of the Division of Property Management and Construction in the New Jersey Department of the Treasury. Mr. Arcario began his tenure with Treasury in 2002. He has directed operations overseeing capital projects valued over $2 Billion.

Prior to joining the State of New Jersey, Mr. Arcario was with Bovis Lend Lease as a Senior Project Executive for northern New Jersey. Additional previous positions include Director of Construction for Skycon Construction - Family Golf, Project Manager for Toll Brothers, and Project Engineer for Turner Construction Company.

Mr. Arcario is a graduate of Cornell University. He is an active volunteer with his church and diocese.